#2181 The Catechism of the Catholic Church
"The Sunday Eucharist is the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practice. For this reason, the faithful are obliged to participate in the Eucharist on days of obligation, unless excused for a serious reason (for example, illness, the care of infants) or dispensed by their own Pastor. Those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave sin."
From Monsignor Tom’s Desk

We managed to escape the path and wrath of Dorian, but she wasn’t so kind to the people of the Bahamas. We pray for them as they mourn their lost loved ones, and we have begun to help them with funds and relief packages. The Knights of Columbus have begun to collect necessary items and funds, and as soon as we get the “high sign” from our diocese, we will deliver additional aid. Their Archbishop is a good friend, and we spent a good deal of time together at the recent Supreme Convention of the Knights of Columbus. He has related to me some of the damage brought on by the destructive powers of the worst hurricane he can remember. Thanking God and our Blessed Mother, we were spared such a tragedy, and now we look to help our less fortunate brothers and sisters living less than sixty miles from Delray Beach. I'll post more information on assistance as soon as we get it.

Speaking of the Blessed Virgin, although this 23rd Sunday of the Church year has liturgical precedence, September 8th usually marks the birthday of Mary, the Mother of God. She is the first among all the saints because she said yes to God in a very special way. We know it’s possible for us to be a saint, but is it probable? To be a saint means to live a life of holiness, and we grow in holiness by following Jesus as His disciples. In the Gospel passage from St. Luke, Jesus tells us that discipleship demands single-minded loyalty. It demands total and complete focus on the kingdom of God. Absolute loyalty to Jesus and His mission is required of every disciple. It even surpasses the loyalty demanded by one’s family. Every disciple of Jesus must be prepared to endure suffering. Jesus says we must carry our own crosses. Being a follower of Jesus requires the willingness to suffer what He suffered. Discipleship also means that everything—including possessions—must take second place to the kingdom of God.

Closely related, then, to the notion of discipleship is the concept of stewardship. In the First Letter of St. Peter, he writes of stewardship in these words: “As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace” (1 Peter 4:10).

The art of growing in God’s grace is the key to growth in the Church. Building a culture of growth in the Church starts with inviting people to experience the love of Jesus Christ.

I have given much thought to how it is that we can begin a process of strategic planning for growth in our parish. The growth envisioned is far more than just a quantitative increase in the number of people or the amount of money available to our projects in our parish. It is also essential to ensure that we give significant attention to the qualitative growth that will guarantee sustainability for generations that follow.

There are four things needed to build a vibrant community of saints:

1. Hospitality: Invite people to join us in prayer, especially Sunday Mass;
2. Formation: Study the Bible, and learn more about Jesus and our Catholic faith through it and the various instructional classes we hold;
3. Prayer: Provide the Sacraments as signs of hope and paths of grace to heaven; and,
4. Service: Serve those in need by practicing charity and justice.

The verbs in these four action items correspond to the four pillars of stewardship and discipleship that we often talk about in our parish: hospitality, formation, prayer and service. We can all communicate more broadly the message of invitation.

Through prayer, discernment, and consultation with others, it has become evident that the Lord is inviting us to embrace more fully our call to discipleship out of which necessarily follows a life of stewardship. Stewardship recognizes that everything we have comes from God. We are stewards whether we recognize it or not and whether we like it or not. Stewardship from God’s perspective is that He has given us gifts to be used not just selfishly for ourselves, but to be shared with others. Becoming a disciple means making an intentional decision to accept the Lord’s call to follow Him and live the discipleship and stewardship way of life. I know that such a plan for growth may seem quite ambitious, but it is one about which I am very optimistic, especially given what this parish has to offer, and the many ways in which various groups are already poised to contribute to that growth. A key element that is essential to this plan for growth is the leadership that evolves from those parishioners who get involved in one of the ministries and organizations of our parish that helps form us -- Christ’s Body. But they cannot do this alone. They need the help and cooperation of all parishioners. To be able to put into practice the mission of Jesus, we all need to be part of a team that supports each other. So, strive to be “intentional disciples” of the Lord and good stewards of the gifts entrusted to us for the growth of the Church as we journey together toward our inheritance in the glory of Heaven.
What is a Scapular?

Scapulars, means “shoulders” in Latin, and when a scapular is worn it is a sign of devotion to Mother Mary and faithfulness to Christ.

A scapular is a symbol of a Catholic’s love and commitment to Mother Mary. The Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, (known as the Brown Scapular), is the habit of both the Carmelite Order and the Discalced Carmelite Order, both of which have Our Lady of Mount Carmel as their patroness. This Scapular is the best known and most popular of all the different scapulars. The role of the Scapular in the history of the Church is similar to that of the Rosary: it is one of the oldest and most popular forms of devotion to the Most Holy Virgin, who gave it to us as a means of sanctification and salvation, thus it is a Sacramental. It is worn under the clothes by us Roman Catholics as a sign of our religious devotion. According to tradition, our Blessed Mother appeared to St. Simon Stock at Cambridge, England on Sunday, July 16th, 1251. She presented him with the Scapular and said, ”Take, beloved son, this Scapular of thy order as a badge of my confraternity and for thee and all Carmelites a special sign of grace; whoever dies in this garment, will not suffer everlasting fire.” “It is the sign of salvation, a safeguard in dangers, a pledge of peace, and the covenant.” In this apparition and gift, our Blessed Mother promised special protection and a special grace at the hour of death to all who wear the Scapular so that they would not perish in Hell but would be taken up to Heaven by her on the first Saturday after their death. We must strive to be in a state of grace, implore our Lord's forgiveness and trust in the maternal aid of our Blessed Mother all positive acts of a person who wears a scapular sincerely. The Arlington Catholic Herald

The Scapular is an outward sign of an inner loyalty to Christ Jesus, and trust in His Mother's love and intervention for her children. No other human was closer to Jesus than Mary during His life here on earth. Simply because of this singular and exceptional appointment of being His Mother, Mother Mary is elevated to a position in our hearts and minds above any other human. Her standing is undeniable and indisputable. Jesus sits at the right hand of God, and Mother Mary sits at the left hand of God. Several other Christian religions do not afford Mother Mary the same reverence or admiration. Some go as far as to say she was just a plain woman, and she does not deserve any special devotion or attention. Understanding that her blood flowed through His veins, no spiritually mature or honest person can logically state the case that she was just "another person.”

Now the Scapular is more than just an outward sign or another religious symbol; it is Sacramental! Sacramentals are sacred signs that prepare us to receive grace and help us to be in temperament to receive that grace (CCC 1670). It is another particular object we Catholics can use to keep our attention and focus on growing our relationship with Jesus, our Heavenly Father, and the Holy Spirit. Mother Mary works on our behalf to intercede in our prayer life to gain favor for us and prepare us to receive grace.

There are six different colors and dozens of styles of scapulars available to wear. As many as 18 various categorized scapulars are recognized by the Roman Church. The wearing of a devotional scapular has been viewed as a constant meditation by Bishop Leo De Goesbriand: "Wherever I am, whatever I am doing, Mary never sees me without seeing upon my body evidence of my devotion to her.

The Scapular is to be worn 24 hrs. a day throughout all activities. At times you may feel the Scapular around your neck and heat on your chest and or back. This is all to remind you of Mother Mary's love for you and your devotion to Jesus and reverence for them during the day when you lose track of what's really important. Please visit our gift shop to purchase your Scapular and focus more on your time in devotion to Mary and Jesus.

How does a scapular tie into stewardship? Well if you consider our devotion to Mary, Jesus and God as a blessing, and you should, then you should also know everything there is to know about protecting, nourishing, building and being a disciple of that blessing. In other words being a good steward of your blessings means sharing them and the goodness created in your life by them. So, like all the things we do at Mass, in prayer, devotionals, the rosary, making the sign of the cross and etc., these actions are done to strengthen, protect and spread the Word of God. Incorporating a scapular into your daily faith practices is an outward sign of stewardship and demonstrates to others how to live it out through your gift of faith.

Please visit our gift shop to purchase your own scapular and focus more on your time in devotion to Mary and Jesus.

RCIA ENROLLMENT

RCIA, (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) is a process of initiation in four stages in which the Church brings a person who is not baptized into the faith and full membership of the Catholic Church. It also meets the need of a person who might have been baptized as a Catholic as a child, but then left later in life without any further involvement or catechesis. It can support them as they come to learn about Catholic life, receive the Sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Eucharist and come to share in the life of the Church.

It is also used to provide formation and education for someone baptized in another Christian denomination who now wishes to be received into full communion with the Catholic Church. Registration is online only and can be found on our website under “Faith Formation.” Classes begin on Monday, September 9th, 7:00 PM, in Kellaghan Hall.

Do you feel called to serve our Lord and the Parish?

We are always in need for volunteers to launder and press the Altar Linens that are used each week during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. These are cleaned on a weekly basis. Special attention to reverence when handling the purificators, corporal and hand towels is required and special instructions will be given. This ministry is time-flexible and performed at home. Currently, the time commitment of our volunteers is once every three months. If you are interested in this ministry, please contact the parish office at (561)276-6892. This is a great way to earn school service hours for parents.
Our beautiful Perpetual Adoration Chapel is open to everyone; however, an access code is required for entrance from 8:00 PM until 6:00 AM. The access code can be obtained from the Parish Office during regular business hours. We welcome you to visit the Lord at any time.

WHY IS IT?

A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower shaves with an ADVERTISED razor brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee drives to work in an ADVERTISED car and then . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn’t pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
